CONDITION OF HIRING

Goods can be collected during the office hours from our address. No goods will be issued or accepted on Sundays or after hours. The hirer is solely responsible for the hired goods and the hire period shall continue until the return thereof.

Goods must be checked by the hirer before loading and leaving the premises. No responsibility will be taken by us for any breakages or irregularities regarding quantities etc. once the goods have left the premises.

During the hire period the hirer shall be held responsible for the loss of or damage to hired goods. It is agreed that reasonable cost of replacing any hired goods lost or not returned, or for repairing any damage to hired goods is to be paid by the hirer.

The hirer hereby irrevocably indemnifies the owner or its employees or representatives against all claims, payments or demands to property or persons whether or not caused through any negligence or accidental damage The owner accepts no liability for any loss of or damage to, or arising from defects of, or the faulty erection or the non-delivery or late delivery of hired goods.

The owner accepts no liability for any loss of or damage to, or arising from defects of, or the faulty erection or the non-delivery or late delivery of hired goods.

All goods, except for the table linen, must be thoroughly washed and cleaned, failing which a washing charge will be levied. Candle wax and mildew stains will be charged. Wet or damp table cloths must be dried out in their soiled condition to avoid mildew from forming. This is recommended over long weekend hires. WE reserve the right to declare items with mildew stains "replaceable at cost".

Goods must be returned the day after the function. In the case of a function being held on a Saturday, goods must be returned on the following Monday.

Replacement costs are available on request as such costs MUST BE SETTLED UPON RETURN OF GOODS.

Thanks
